Vol. 30, No. 1

Invited Viewpoint

Major hazards in the process industries: Achievements and challenges in loss prevention
H.J. Pasman (Rijswijk, Netherlands), H.A. Duxbury (Cheshire, U.K.) and E.N. Bjordal (Porsgrunn, Norway) 1

Review

A review of magnetic induced polarization with a special reference to its applicability to environmental restoration problems
D.J. Jin (Grand Junction, CO, U.S.A.) 39

PROBAS: The Danish Product Register Data Base—A national register of chemical substances and products
M.-A. Flyvholm, P. Andersen, I.D. Beck and N.P. Brandorff (Copenhagen, Denmark) 59

Bacterial mutagenicity of soil extracts from a bioremediation facility treating wood-preserving waste
K.C. Donnelly, C.S. Anderson, J.C. Thomas, K.W. Brown, D.J. Manek and S.H. Safe (College Station, TX, U.S.A.) 71

An XPS and SEM/EDS characterization of leaching effects on lead- and zinc-doped portland cement
D.L. Cocke, M.Y.A. Mollah, J.R. Parga, T.R. Hess and J.D. Ortego (Beaumont, TX, U.S.A.) 83

Vol. 30, No. 2

Special Issue: Heavy Gas Dispersion

Preface iii

Dispersion of a dense cylindrical cloud in a turbulent atmosphere
C.S. Matthias (Downsview, Ont., Canada) 117

Effects of obstacles on the spread of a heavy gas—Wind tunnel simulations
K.C. Heidorn, M.C. Murphy, P.A. Irwin (Guelph, Ont., Canada), H. Sahota, P.K. Misra and R. Bloxam (Rexdale, Ont., Canada) 151

Numerical simulations of LNG vapor dispersion from a fenced storage area
S.T. Chan (Livermore, CA, U.S.A.) 195

Vol. 30, No. 3

An approach for deriving emergency planning zones for chemical munitions emergencies
J.H. Sorensen, S.A. Carnes (Oak Ridge, TN, U.S.A.) and G.O. Rogers (College Station, TX, U.S.A.) 223

Currently available permeability and breakthrough data characterizing chemical warfare agents and their simulants in civilian protective clothing materials
M.L. Daugherty, A.P. Watson and T. Vo-Dinh 243

The role of chemical activities in leaching models and experiments
S.S. Shukla, J.L. Margrave (Houston, TX, U.S.A.), M. Hotchandani (Carrboro, NC, U.S.A.) and S.N. Shukla (Lucknow, India) 269

An FTIR, SEM and EDS investigation of solidification/stabilization of chromium using portland cement Type V and Type IP
M.Y.A. Mollah, Y.-N. Tsai, T.R. Hess and D.L. Cocke (Beaumont, TX, U.S.A.) 273

Leaching boundary in cement-based waste forms
K.Y. Cheng (Cincinnati, OH, U.S.A.), P. Bishop and J. Isenburg (Cincinnati, OH, U.S.A.) 285

The effect of sodium sulfate on solidification/stabilization of a synthetic electroplating sludge in cementitious binders
A. Roy, H.C. Eaton, F.K. Cartledge and M.E. Tittlebaum (Baton Rouge, LA, U.S.A.) 297

Solidification/stabilization study for the disposal of pentachlorophenol
S.S. Shukla, A.S. Shukla, K.-C. Lee (Beaumont, TX, U.S.A.), T.M. Aminabhavi and R.H. Balundgi (Dharwad, India) 317

Transport of chemical vapors through soil: A landfill cover simulation experiment
G.J. Thoma (Baton Rouge, LA, U.S.A.), G. Hildebrand (Fayetteville, AR, U.S.A.), K.T. Valsaraj, L.J. Thibodeaux (Baton Rouge, LA, U.S.A.) and C. Springer (Fayetteville, AR, U.S.A.) 333

Metals and incinerators: The latest regulatory phase
R.A. Carnes, J.J. Santoleri and S. Heather McHale (Plymouth, PA, U.S.A.) 343

The importance of information on industrial risk: A new documentation centre
K. Rasmussen and H.B.F. Gow (Ispra, Italy) 355
